The Communications division is staffed by 6 full time dispatchers with a minimum of 2 dispatchers on duty at any given time. All dispatchers are APCO certified Tele-communicators. This division is responsible for all radio and telephone communications as well as NCIC and ACJIS computer transmissions. Their responsibilities include emergency and non-emergency calls for service, dispatch police units to calls, process field events, maintain and monitor radio contact with officers in the field. A Computer Aided Dispatch System is used to ensure professional, timely, efficient police response to the citizens of Orange Beach.
