

The Orange Beach Police Department has both day and evening patrol shifts. These shifts are staffed by individuals with a strong commitment to proactive policing, crime prevention, and working with the community. The Patrol Division is responsible for answering calls for service within the city limits. Patrol Officers of the division are the first to respond to all calls for service. Patrol Officers are responsible for traffic enforcement, accident investigation, minor criminal investigations, business and residential security checks, assisting citizens and motorists and enforcing all local and state laws.

Its purpose is to provide safety of our citizens and guests to our community. Through consistent enforcement of traffic laws, thorough accident investigations, identification and elimination of traffic hazards and strict DUI enforcement, the department strives to keep our city streets safe.
